Motion to Approve Minutes from October 6th 2015:

Motion: Scott Gumto Second: Bob Pilat Motion passes

New Business:

Pavilion: The concrete pad is done; grass has been planted and the roof installation is underway. Nick Helfer plans on building a small wall behind the pavilion with barn stone from the barn. The pavilion is in honor of Dale and Betty Hartzell.

Roof Color: Green was the color picked by the committee for the roof color. The blue that was originally picked, wasn't available in the particular shade the Committee liked.

Old Business:

Park Hours: Sunrise to sunset, a sign has been erected at the Park entrance.

KLH: No word on the permits.

Grant: Doug reported that he heard that Penn Township did not receive the grant but has not seen anything in writing.

Other Business:

Mountain Bike Trail: Melissa asks if the Committee would consider a mountain bike trail. There is some discussion, and it is decided that Melissa get some more information for the next meeting, and a proposed trail.

Horseshoe Pits: Eagle Scout candidate Noah Gumto talks about his project, the horseshoe pits. He is well into the project and will be done soon.

Meetings: The Committee decides to cancel the December and January meetings.
