

Harcrest Park's new sign features stones from the former farm's barn.

William Pitts Eagle Staff Writer

November 22, 2024 Last Updated: November 22, 2024 04:35 PM Community

The newly-constructed sign at Harcrest Park in Penn Township. Submitted Photo

The new sign outside Harcrest Park in Penn Township was partially constructed with stone from the barn at the former Hartzell farm where the park is now located.

The sign was installed last month as a tribute to the family, Penn Township Supervisor Doug Roth said.

The sign was constructed by Raducz Stone and put together by stone masons Bob Winters and Mark Gubainc of Robert Winters Construction.